

Samantha has been a studious college student who has acid reflux. Her current meal situation has been trial and error with local restaurants, cafes, and food courts.

Samantha discovers and downloads the Food Finder For Everyone app and enters in her dietary information.

With many available menu options at restaurants near her, she calls her friend Jill and asks if she wants to get dinner at xyz.

They meet at xyz to eat and confirm that they will have something good to eat.

Without any upset tummy, Samantha returns home back to studying.

Samantha leaves a 5 star rating of the app and restaurant